

Senior Formwork Designer

Technical

Creating new things together – Your tasks in our team:

- Assist the TTL in maintaining the operational performance of the Technical Office and, where necessary, lead the team in the TTL's absence
- Understand company Technical design strategy
- Production of accurate and economical drawings, schedules and quotations whilst maintaining an efficient and effective use of time
- Provide technical advice on all PERI products to customers and PERI sales engineers
- Actively promote the supply of a first class technical service and lead by example

Aiming high and strongly connected - the benefits for you:

- 20 days annual leave entitlement plus Bank Holidays
- 5 days annual leave for Christmas shut down
- Company pension contributions 3% employee + 6% contribution
- Private Healthcare cover & Death in service x2 base salary
- Fixed salary and non-contractual Christmas bonus
- Cash for Car

WE do not work without YOU – What distinguishes you:

- HNC Minimum in a Construction related subject i.e. Civil Engineering
- Good experience in all aspects of Formwork, Falsework and scaffolding designs
- Good knowledge of AutoCAD / PERIcad
- Able to lead and motivate a team in Technical Team Leaders absence absence

At PERI, we are committed to creating and maintaining a culture of diversity and inclusion. Our greatest strength at PERI is our people and when recruiting, we welcome the unique contributions that candidates can bring to shape and enhance the future of our business.

Would you like to take on responsibility at an early stage and shape the future of our industry?

Then PERI is the right employer for you. For more than 50 years, we have combined the down-to-earth nature of a family run business with the economic success of a global player.

Every day, a team of more than 9,100 people worldwide create the milestones of construction history together with our customers.

Do you want to explore your opportunities at PERI?

Apply now and become part of our team!

